EXTRA.

HER SHAFT IS BROKEN.

Definite News of the Steamship Umbria Received This Morning.

SPOKEN BY THE MANHANSSET.

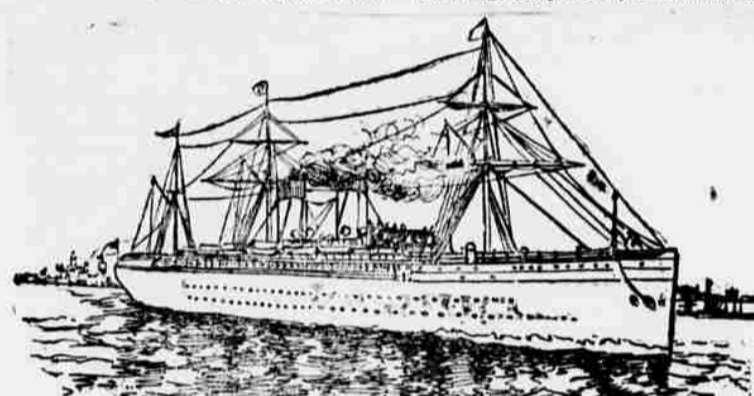

The Ship Is Lying To While Her Shaft Is Being Repaired by Her Engineers.

STILL IN THE STEAMSHIP LANE.

Belief that She and Her Passengers May Make Port at Halifax.

QUARANTINE, N. Y., Dec. 30.—The cause of the delay of the crack Cunard steamship Umbria is now definitely known. Her shaft is broken. Just where, when and how the accident happened, however, will probably not be known until the Umbria herself limps into port, which may be within the next twenty-four hours.

This latest information comes from the British steamship Manhanset, which left

CUNARD STEAMSHIP UMBRIA.

Swansea Dec. 15 and arrived at quarantine at 7.30 this morning.

To an IRVING World reporter, Capt. Duck, of the Manhanset said:

"We spoke the Umbria Dec. 26 about 1.30 in the afternoon. There was a heavy gale blowing at the time, but she was riding the waves easily and was in no danger. She had three drags, or sea anchors out, and signalled that her shaft was broken. Her engineers were engaged in making repairs, which they expected to finish the next day, or last Tuesday.

"When we spoke her, the Umbria was in latitude 42.50 north and longitude 57.53 west. Her captain wished us to report all well on board."

This report shows that the Umbria, when

OFFICIALS FEEL NO FEAR.

Cunard Company Confident the Ship Will Make Safe Port.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.) Glasgow, Dec. 30.—The chairman of the Cunard Steamship Company expressed himself in an interview today as having no anxiety in regard to the Umbria.

He said he was hopeful of receiving further good news from her within two days, but if he did not he should feel no uneasiness.

GAVE CHASE TO A BURGLAR.

Young Hamilton Caught Him After a Run of Four Blocks.

George W. Hamilton, son of the millionaire Ivory-stable owner and proprietor of the Ivory-stable stables, chased and captured a burglar last night.

Frank Smith, nineteen years of age, of 242 North second street, Williamsburg, broke into the office of Hamilton's stables, Bedford avenue and North Fourth street, and stole a robe valued at $15.

Young Hamilton saw the thief getting out and gave chase. After a run of four blocks the fellow was overhauled.

The fellow was inclined to show fight, but he recognized the physical superiority of his captor and submitted to arrest without a struggle.

He was handed over to a policeman and was arraigned before Justice Goetting this morning. When he said, "Let up on me, judge; I only wanted to look it up to get a job," he was held for trial.

Two Men Perish in a Snowdrift.

Boise City, Idaho, Dec. 30.—In Idaho County the other day a number of people were killed by a snowdrift. After a heavy snowfall, a snowdrift was formed in a narrow pass, and two men were killed by it.

One of the men was a man named John, and the other was a man named John. They were both killed by the snowdrift.

POINTERS ON THE RACES.

The Two Mile Races the Biggest Events of To-Day.

More Quantity Than Quality in Guttenburg's Programme.

There is more quantity than quality in the programme at Guttenburg today.

The card is a very fair one and the racing ought to be worth looking at.

Several of the events look as though they might furnish exciting finishes and the betting should be very brisk and heavy.

Barb's track and several races are maiden affairs and will dish up many good things.

The mile races, of which there are two, ought to be the best of the day.

Greenwich, Kirkover, Ma Belle, Mohican, Panway and Sandowme meet in one and Gold Dollar, Inferno, Prince Howard and other good ones in the second.

The five-furlong dash ought also to be a good race.

The entries and selections are as follows:
